Annukka regularly advises both international and domestic industrial clients and private equity funds on matters related to private M&A. Annukka has a solid background in both domestic and cross-border M&A transactions that spans various industry sectors. She also advises clients on general corporate, commercial, and contract law matters.

Annukka joined Borenius in 2017, and before that she worked as an Associate Legal Counsel at EY. During her studies, Annukka gained experience in different sectors by e.g. working at the Finnish Competition and Consumer Authority's merger control unit. In addition to graduating with a Master of Laws degree from the University of Helsinki, Annukka has studied law at Université Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne.
