Jani Syrjänen is renowned for his expertise in employment law. Jani provides strategic counsel to both international and domestic clients on a comprehensive array of employment law matters, including pensions and benefits, occupational safety, discrimination, and business immigration issues. His deep understanding of employment law and unwavering commitment to client success make him an indispensable asset to any organisation.

Jani excels in negotiating and drafting top management agreements, and developing local agreements, company policies and procedures. He offers guidance to employers facing critical employment law challenges, such as outsourcing, reorganisations, and redundancies. With extensive experience in litigating complex employment law cases, Jani has successfully represented clients in high-profile landmark cases across various courts, including the European Court of Justice and the Finnish Supreme Court.

Jani heads the firm's Employment (<http://www.borenius.com/services/employment/>) team, driving excellence and innovation in all aspects of employment law.
