"A true expert in his field. Easy to discuss legal issues with him."

"Highly experienced lawyer, very committed, and has a straight approach."

"Johan excels in analysing and dissecting legal and business issues into clear and coherent steps that are actionable. He starts with the big picture and maintains clarity about the goals with the ability to focus on the ever-present pain points. Johan also very well managed to balance the depth and experience of the deal team throughout – what struck me as very modern was the fact that mid-deal the male senior associate took his paternity leave with no disruption or added billing visible to the client. Johan is also connected within Borenius and could on a short notice take on subject-matter experts to address specific issues."
